Women in Film (WIF) and the Gang Alternatives Program (GAP)
GAP PSA winner of the Bronze 2009 Telly Award

Los Angeles, CA - On Monday, June 29, 2009, GAP's Public Service Announcement (PSA) entitled "Feet" received the 2009 Bronze Telly Award at the 30th Annual Telly Awards held in Beverly Hills, CA. This year's awards was one of the most competitive entries, with 11,000 entries from all 50 states and a prestigious panel of 350 judges. The GAP PSA was recognized for its outstanding production.

GAP was awarded a Public Service Announcement through the Women In Film (WIF) PSA Production program. This program collaborates with other Hollywood talents in the film and production industry to promote non-profit agencies that improve the lives of women and children. In 2008, GAP was selected to receive a pro bono PSA as a way to publicize GAP's quality programs and services.

The GAP PSA has also received the Bronze Addy and Aurora Platinum "Best of Show" awards in April 2009. To view the entry form click here.
